Non-Disclosure Agreement Vs. Non-Compete Agreement ...

A non-compete agreement applies to employees as well as vendors or companies that interact with a business and encounter confidential and proprietary information. Moreover, this agreement's main purpose is to protect a business's trade secrets, assets, profit figures, and other crucial information exclusive to the business.

Non-Compete Agreements or Non-Compete clauses are necessary in a business contract to protect the company from losing key clients, to maintain the confidentiality of corporate information, and to ensure that employees do not leave quickly or work for competitors, rendering the training spent by the company on them useless.
